Mindful Music Moments

Draper 3 has a new resource for practicing mindfulness. Teachers will be able to incorporate this music-listening into their Thursday morning meditation time, in connection with the weekly gratitude journaling and reflection writing. This is a free program accessible to everyone in connection with D3. Students and parents are welcome and encouraged to access this resource at home as needed. About the Program:

Imagine an entire school – students, teachers, and administrators – taking time each morning to turn inward together, and listen to a brief mindfulness prompt and world-class music.

Mindful Music Moments combines mindful & creative prompts with 3 minutes of orchestral, jazz, world, and new music into 40 weeks of daily audio and video journeys for schools to play over the announcements and in classrooms.
